CICC Membership Policy:

A CICC member organization is allowed to state that it is a member of the Coalition for the International Criminal Court; however, it may not state that it is an official representative of the CICC. Individual members may endorse or take a position on situations before the Court, but not on behalf of the CICC. The CICC does not take a position on potential and current situations before the Court or situations under analysis (see the Coalition's official situations policy). If a CICC member wishes to form a national and/or regional CICC coalition, it must be done in conjunction with the CICC Secretariat. Any use of the CICC logo by a member organization requires the express permission of the CICC Secretariat. You may not use the name National Coalition for the International Criminal Court, or [your country/region] Coalition for the International Criminal Court without express permission of the CICC. To obtain such permission please contact your regional coordinator or the Director of Programs.

On behalf of _____ (Name of Organization),
 I have read and agree to CICC's membership policy.
