The Internship

The Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) is looking for a Europe Programme Intern at its Europe Regional Office) situated in Brussels, Belgium.

The intern will assist with the Coalition's Regional Coordinator for Europe with a specific focus on the European Union, South Caucasus, Eastern Europe, Central Asia, etc.

Responsibilities may include:

- Support efforts to promote the universal acceptance of, support to and awareness on the Rome Statute of the ICC;
- Carry out research related to International Criminal Law and Human Rights, and monitoring political developments and human rights issues in Europe;
- Monitor and attend events & meetings in Brussels;
- Monitor events at the European Union and at the UN Human Rights Council in Geneva;
- Supporting the Regional Coordinator in missions and outreach;
- Undertake special projects and assignments as needed, including administrative tasks.

Qualifications

- Advanced undergraduate or graduate student in Law, International Relations, Human Rights, Conflict resolution, Political Science, or related fields;
- Knowledge of the International Criminal Court, the European Union, the United Nations system;
- Knowledge of politics and human rights issues in the region;
- Strong writing skills and excellent English are essential;
- Native or advanced language ability in another European language is desirable;
- Ability to work independently and within the constraints of tight deadlines;
- Previous experience in a non-profit environment preferred;
- Computer skills (Microsoft Office, internet applications) are required.

Ideally, interns are asked to commit for a minimum of four months, preferably longer, on a full-time basis.

Please note that this is an unpaid internship and the Coalition cannot cover associated transportation or accommodation costs. Ideally, applicants should be enrolled an academic program for the duration of the internship, and required by their university to undertake an internship.

We recommend all prospective candidates to seek financial assistance from their academic institutions or seek outside fellowships, grants and other resources.
