Conscious of the critical importance of the role of the Registrar of the ICC, we have prepared the following as a questionnaire for candidates for this position.

Please reply to some or all the following questions as comprehensively or concisely as you wish.

Name:
Nationality:

Vision for the ICC and the Registry:

1. Why do you wish to be elected as the Registrar of the International Criminal Court (ICC)?
2. Article 43 of the Rome Statute states that the Registrar shall be a person of “high moral character, be highly competent and have an excellent knowledge of and be fluent in at least one of the working languages of the Court” (French and English). Please describe briefly how you meet these criteria.
3. What do you believe are the most important achievements of the ICC in its first 15 years?
4. What do you believe are some of the major challenges confronting the ICC and Rome Statute system in the coming years?
5. What do you believe are some of the current challenges the Registry specifically faces and how would you address them? What are some of the qualitative indicators you might consider when assessing the performance of the Registry and what would you suggest to enhance efficiencies?
6. All Court officials must perform their functions with full independence and should not act under the instruction of any State or external actor. Do you expect to have any difficulties in taking a position independent of, and possibly contrary to, the position of your government or any external actor?
7. The Registry is a neutral organ of the Court that provides services to all other organs so the ICC can function and conduct fair and effective public proceedings. How would you describe the relationship of the ICC Registrar with the ICC President; the Office of the Prosecutor; the ICC Chambers, and the Assembly of States Parties?

8. Please describe any specific expertise of relevance to the work of the ICC that you may have, including, but not limited to, gender equality and violence against women or children. How would you ensure that women and children have access to justice and are cognizant of what the Rome Statute is seeking to achieve?

Experience in Management and Budgetary Processes:

9. How would you describe your management skills and experience that would be of relevance to the effective management of the ICC's human resources, including hiring and retaining highly-qualified staff and ensuring their satisfactory performance, as well as addressing the chronic imbalance in geographical representation of its staff and that of women in higher levels?
10. Please describe your experience preparing and being responsible for a large budget, including whether you have experience in working with a results-based budgeting system. What are the size of the budgets and staff you have supervised in past positions? What strategies would you undertake in relation to the preparation, submission and examination of the ICC budget to ensure support by the Committee on Budget and Finance and States Parties?

Experience in External Affairs:

11. One of the core challenges identified for the Court is obtaining a positive and effective response to its requests for cooperation. Please describe experience you may have that is relevant to address cooperation challenges for the ICC Registry.
12. The Registrar has a special mandate vis-à-vis the outreach activities of the Court, especially regarding victims and affected communities. Please elaborate on any experience relevant to fulfilling this mandate, as well as your philosophy regarding the role of the ICC's field presence.
13. The ICC has established constructive and long-term relationships with nongovernmental organizations (NGOs). Please describe any previous experience you have working with NGOs.
14. How would you see your role with regards to increasing the visibility of the Court?

Experience in Judicial Support:

15. Please describe your experience and/or expertise in dealing with victim participation in proceedings. How would you manage the Registry's role to ensure that the statutory right of victims to participate in proceedings is achieved in the most meaningful manner whilst ensuring efficiency and expediency?
16. The ICC Registrar is responsible for establishing the eligibility and qualifications of defense counsel, providing support to them, and working with the Court to promote the rights of the defense. Please describe your experience with these issues, including with respect to Defense access to necessary facilities and resources in proceedings

(‘equality of arms’), including in addressing issues such as gaps in gender equality on ICC Defense counsel teams?

17. Article 68(1) of the Rome Statute provides that the Court “shall take appropriate measures to protect the safety, physical and psychological well-being, dignity and privacy of victims and witnesses.” Please describe the experience or vision you may have with regards to the protection of victims and witnesses, particularly women, at the ICC?

Miscellaneous:

18. Have you ever been found, after an administrative or judicial hearing, to have discriminated against or harassed an individual on the grounds of actual or perceived age, race, creed, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, disability, marital status, socio-economic status, and/or alienage or citizenship status? If yes, please describe the circumstances.
19. Do you know of any factors that would adversely affect your ability to competently serve as the Registrar, to comply with ethical responsibilities, or to complete the responsibilities that the Registrar is required to assume? If yes, please explain. Are there any other issues or comments you would like to address?

Thank you.
